

Hey BOO-tiful friends!
What do we have here?
How did this fa-boo-lous gift suddenly appear?

It's a hauntingly fun spell called

You've been BOOed!

Once cast, YOU must spread the HALLOWEEN mood!

Who we are we cannot tell
That would break the BOO-tastic spell.

Just hang the "We've Been BOOed" on your door
So everyone knows about your Halloween score!

Then continue the spell within one day or two by creating something boo-friendly for someone new!

Add a copy of this poem with your spooktacular surprise
but be wary of potential prying eyes!

Don't forget to include a "We've Been BOOed" sheet
When you leave behind your spooky treat!

Hauntingly yours
